

2nd Sunday of Advent

Reflection

John the Baptist was the voice crying out. Use your voice to cry out against injustices through your music selections, a bulletin column or blog, or an Advent Taize service. Today is International Volunteer Day. Sometimes professional ministers are so busy doing their job that they don't find a way to volunteer themselves. Choose one place to volunteer that is separate from the place where you give your time and are not in charge of everything.